In connection with an investment made in the Issuer by Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau (“KfW”), KfW, dievini Hopp BioTech holding GmbH & Co. KG (“dievini”), and Dietmar Hopp entered into the Shareholders’ Agreement agreeing to certain transfer restrictions and rights of first refusal relating to their interests in the Issuer, certain nomination rights, and a voting agreement relating to certain specified actions, to which DH-LT-Investments GmbH, MH-LT Investments GmbH, Zweite DH Verwaltungs GmbH, 4H invest GmbH and Bohlini invest GmbH acceded in connection with private placement and private transfers permitted in accordance with the Second Supplement (described further below). In particular, the parties agreed to vote a specified number of their shares as directed by KfW on certain specified actions, subject to certain exceptions. These specified actions include, inter alia: (i) transferring the tax domicile of the Issuer and/or the approval of the transfer of the corporate or administrative seat of CureVac AG; (ii) relocating or ceasing activities in specified areas to a state outside the European Union to the extent (in particular in the area of the development of vaccines) material for the protection of the health of the population of the European Union; (iii) entering into material mergers and acquisitions; and (iv) amendments to the articles of association of CureVac AG which would affect the foregoing matters. Under the terms of the Shareholders’ Agreement, Dietmar Hopp had agreed to purchase an aggregate of EUR 100 million of the Common Shares in a concurrent private placement at a price per share equal to the initial public offering price. Dietmar Hopp has effected this purchase through DH-LT-Investments GmbH.

The Shareholders’ Agreement has an initial fixed term that expires on December 31, 2023, subject to a right to extend for one year for the benefit of KfW and dievini. On February 23, 2023, KfW provided a written notice to the other parties to the Shareholders’ Agreement exercising such extension right and the term of the Shareholders’ Agreement has been extended to December 31, 2024. The Shareholders’ Agreement may be terminated after December 31, 2024, by either party subject to six months’ notice prior the end of the applicable calendar year. In addition, the Shareholders’ Agreement shall automatically terminate if KfW sells all or a part of its interest in the Issuer to a third party, subject to certain exceptions.

On January 13, 2022, the parties to the Shareholders’ Agreement entered into that certain Second Supplement to the Shareholders’ Agreement (the “Second Supplement”), whereby certain transfer restrictions and rights of first refusal relating to the parties’ interests in the Issuer, among others, were amended. Among other things, the Second Supplement:

- Provides that, out of the Shares held of record by dievini and DH-LT Investments GmbH at the time of the entry into the Shareholders’ Agreement, 49,897,938 Shares are Restricted Shares (the “Restricted Shares”) and 29,877,279 Shares are Non-restricted dievini Shares (the “Unrestricted dievini Shares”);
- Increases the number of Unrestricted dievini Shares that dievini and DH-LT Investments GmbH may dispose of during the period starting from August 15, 2021 and ending on August 14, 2022 (the “Extended Lock-Up Period”) from shares having a total selling price of up to EUR 250,000,000.00 to shares having an aggregate consideration value (defined as the higher of the purchase price or the stock market value (less a market standard discount on the stock market value)) of up to EUR 450,000,000.00 (the “Cap”) and clarifies that such disposals are not subject to the right of first refusal in favor of KfW and without the acquirer being obliged to accede to the Shareholders’ Agreement;

- Provides that any disposals by dievini after the Extended Lock-Up Period (but in case of Unrestricted dievini Shares only in excess of the Cap) are subject to a right of first refusal in favor of KfW;
- Allows dievini and the dievini Shareholders to transfer Shares to a wider group of people and entities which is now defined as (1) dievini’s affiliates, (2) the ultimate beneficial owners of dievini and their relatives, (3) Dietmar Hopp, Daniel Hopp, Oliver Hopp, Prof Dr Christof Hettich, Dr Friedrich von Bohlen und Halbach, Dr Mathias Hothum and their respective relatives, and (4) partnerships and/or companies solely or jointly controlled by the persons referred to in the foregoing clauses (2) and (3) (collectively, the “dievini Shareholders”) and clarifies that such transfers are not subject to the right of first refusal in favor of KfW provided that such dievini Shareholders receiving Shares agree to be bound by the Shareholders’ Agreement and that certain other conditions are satisfied;
- Eliminates dievini’s right of first refusal with respect to any transfer of Shares by KfW; and
- Provides that the Shareholders’ Agreement shall automatically terminate if KfW disposes of a number of Shares exceeding the aggregate consideration value (defined as the higher of the purchase price or the stock market value (less a market standard discount on the stock market value) of EUR 300,000,000 to a third party.
